

BISHOP DESIGNATE DANIEL B. BLAND SENIOR PASTOR OF REVIVAL CHURCH

Motivator, mentor, pastor, and friend, Bishop-Designate Daniel B. Bland is respected and called upon by many. He is the Senior Pastor of Revival Church located in New Haven & Hamden, Connecticut. Since his appointment in 2012, Revival Church has become a thriving & innovative multigenerational church, whose congregation continues to grow in both size and spirit.

Bishop-Designate Bland is mostly known for his passionate and prophetic approach to preaching and teaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As a highly sought after conference speaker, God deposited within him a mandate to equip and empower the lives of believers across the globe. Bishop-Designate Bland serves the Episcopacy of the Mount Calvary Holy Church of America, as the Jurisdictional Bishop of Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island. He often considers himself privileged to serve the Lord's Church by providing regional oversight and pastoral instruction to senior leaders and their congregations. In 2016, Archbishop Alfred Owens Jr. appointed Bishop-Designate Bland as the International Director of Youth & Young Adult Ministry. As International Director Bishop-Designate Bland provides cutting edge ministry solutions and strategies to emerging youth and young adult leaders across the United States, Trinidad, Barbados, Africa & the United Kingdom.

In addition to his service to the local and national church, he is an avid social services practitioner and advocate. With over a decade of experience and expertise, he can often be found: providing counseling and guidance to at risk youth involved within the Juvenile Justice system, advocating for the essential needs of individuals living with HIV and AID's, and providing consultation and training for nonprofit organizations, executive leadership teams, and community practitioners.

Bishop-Designate Bland's desire to Serve God, by Serving God's people has been recognized on both the National and Local level. In 2007 he was asked to serve as the Advisor & Professor of Gospel Choirs & Choruses at the University of New Haven, In 2014 he was named the Connecticut Gospel Music Awards Pastor of the Year, and most recently in 2015 he became the recipient of Connecticut 100 Men of Color Award, and received the Albertus Magnus College Alumni Premier Achievement Award for his dedicated work with the marginalized and underserved. Bishop-Designate Bland is married to Lady Melonie K. Bland and is also a singer & songwriter.
